IEMC

(Integrated Emergency Management Course)

- ❖ The Integrated Emergency Management Course (IEMC) is a 4.5 day exercise-based training activity that places elected and appointed officials in realistic crisis situations within a structured learning environment. The course is designed to improve the City's response to disaster by allowing key officials to walk through scenarios in a realistic environment. The course exposes participants to emergency management best practices, increases understanding of other agencies capabilities, and identifies areas for improvement.

- ❖ Date:

February 22-26, 2010

Corporate Emergency Access System (CEAS)

What is the CEAS?

A post-emergency Access Control System used by City of Baltimore, recognized by law enforcement, which provides a secure form of Identification for Critical Private Sector Employees allowing priority access to restricted areas once safety permits.

Primary Objectives

- Quickly establish credibility of critical private sector employees
- Expedite travel and access during an event
- Ensure survival of critical infrastructure and vital lifelines
- Reduce socio-economic impact of a disaster
- Accomplish the above by pre-enrolling businesses in CEAS prior to an emergency event

Benefits to Business

- Rescue vaulted assets, vital records
- Power down networks, mainframes & servers
- Retrieve laptops, servers
- Move key resources and personnel
- Access damage, begin restoration
- Restore critical operations and customer services
- Avoid severe financial loss, loss of customers

Benefits to Government

- Helps speed area recovery by having vital lifelines in place once restrictions are lifted
- Speeds recovery of privately owned, public infrastructure
- Limits long term financial impact, tax loss to the local economy by making business more resilient
- Provides a unique tool for controlling reentry
- NO COST

CEAS Cards

- Allotted based on a percentage of employees at a specific work address or facilities square footage
- 2 years, $50 each
